Portfolio.

01 UI/UX Design

In today's era, design needs to adapt to the digital medium and designers need to understand and create pleasurable experiences for the users.

02 Buisness Development

Design needs to be supported by an entrepreneurial vision to make the process sustainable and create a common vision for development.

03 Industrial Design

Primarily focused on Industrial Design and specialising in Enclosure Design for IoT products, my design style is inspired by minimalism and simplicity.

UI/UX Design

Portfolio website; Indro Designs is my professional portfolio. It is an online portfolio exhibiting all of my work, the website has been designed with a simplistic and minimalistic approach; it has been made responsive to all devices and is also optimised for search engines using SEO and SMM tools.

Web Design

Tres Entertainment is our music page, which focusses on creating groundbreaking experimental music for the 21st century. The website and the pages are created, focussing on the content and keeping it consistent with most of the platforms which would be directing users towards us, giving the users a sense of closure.

Industrial Design.

I have worked on multiple industrial design project specialising in enclosure design as well as lot products.

RECOMENDATIONS

Thomas Heidtmann

Founder Sparth

“Indro did an exceptional job while working on my project Place in Orbit*. It was great to have him on the team, he showed a self-motivated nature and was keeping deadlines. He has great communication skills, good managerial and leadership skills and can focus on multiple tasks simultaneously. I would highly recommend him for any sort of quality Industrial Design work.”

Syed Gowhar Andrabi

Lecturer at Srishti

“Roy performed exceptionally well in the “Place in Orbit” project. Always on time and multi-skilled with excellent communication skills. Roy can focus on many tasks at once. Highly recommended.”

Rishabh Bisht

Engineer at Autodesk

“Indro did a great job as a Design Intern for the Fusion team. He exhibited his quick learning abilities with proactive and self-motivated nature with an eye for excellent design aesthetic in his work. He was incredibly easy to communicate with and he never hesitated to ask any question. It was a pleasure mentoring him and I recommend him to anyone who needs quality design work.”
